4. Developer Report: Rob says that all phases are complete at this point, but Redwing LLC is in ongoing negotiations with Ryan HomeAes for future phases. Construction is in a holding pattern for now, but there are still 100 new homes to go. Also required would be a turn lane from 340 that would cost over $1 million to install. Developer was asked how long before the association is turned over to the homeowners. Rob stated that this would not happen until the community is fully completed. There was also a request for the top coat asphalt on the roads. Rob stated there is no timeline for this yet, as it is tied to the continuation of construction, and that is currently on hold. Lastly, there was a request to have the developer maintain/keep up the undeveloped back lots adjacent to existing homes. Rob stated they would periodically maintain a buffer strip of about 8 feet along those homes.
5. Community Update
 - a. Construction: All new construction is currently paused.
 - b. Architectural Review: Homeowner request to set a timeline on requests. Rob suggests 30 days for reviews & approvals. Also, Homeowners are reminded that exterior modifications (ex. fences & sheds) need to be approved by the board of directors prior to work beginning. Applications & design standards are available on the community's website.

c. Delinquency: There are currently 4 homeowners delinquent on dues, but all are below $250.
